Karl's Wirtshaus - located in the middle of the market square in the beautiful old town combines a cozy ambience, traditional culinary delights, and typical Aachen classics.
www.karls-wirtshaus.de

The Postwagen -the beloved mail van is just as unique as the imperial city: the small wooden building has been nestled against the time-honoured town hall since 1857, and offers traditional Öcher specialties: hearty, skilfully seasoned and refined.
www.postwagen-aachen.de

The Ratskeller - in the historic centre of Aachen, directly on the Market Square on the ground floor of Aachen City Hall is probably Aachen's most beautiful terrace, with a view of the cathedral.
www.ratskeller-aachen.de

Restaurant am Knipp - not only one of the oldest restaurants in Aachen, dating back to 1698, it is also one of the most popular. Its decorations represent the rural German culture of the region with wooden booths and dimmed lights.

Paparazzi – the cuisine reflects the owner's Sicilian roots and seeks to bring a taste of Italian cooking to the Aachener population. The fresh ingredients and preparation are incredibly tasty, especially the home-made pasta. The restaurant's interior is laid-back and modern with selected Italian features and a stylish wine bar.
